

I'M SURE YOU MUST BE MISTAKEN

Actors love to be recognized by their fans, but there are times when they would prefer to be anonymous. JUDITH (Sophia) McCONNELL knows the feeling. "I once had a medical examination which required me to be partly undressed. Although the technician was very sweet in explaining the procedure, it was awkward and embarrassing," says Judith. "As she positioned me against the X-Ray machine, she suddenly let out a scream—'Aren't you Sophia!? I watch you all the time!' Now when I tell this story, I get a kick out of it," admits Judith, "but at the time I wished the technician had remained blissfully ignorant of who I was!"
